

Dear Mom and Dad,

I'm having a(n) (adjective) time here at Camp (goofy name). My counselor is very (adjective). (S)he looks a bit like (celebrity), only a little more (adjective).

The activities here are (adjective). First we have a(n) (adjective) breakfast, then we go to the lake for a (adjective) swim. The (fierce animal) has only been seen twice so far, but no one has seen (kid's name) since (day of the week) afternoon. It's ok though because none of us liked (him/her) anyhow.

After swimming we go to archery. That's the (superlative adjective)! I haven't been the target yet, but (camper's name) got hit (number) times. Tomorrow is my turn.

Then we gather the stuff for a(n) (adjective) lunch. (camper's name) even found some (adjective) berries and a few (small crawly critter, plural). It was the best meal we've had so far, only (number) of us were sick all night! The food here mostly tastes like (noun) with some (noun) added in, just like home, but (comparative adjective).

In the afternoon, we go for a hike or play a game. We had a scavenger hunt, but we didn't win because we found the poisoned ivy but not the poisoned (living thing) or venomous (living thing). We did find lots of (adjective) bones though. The best game is (verb) the counselor to the (noun) .

At night we roast (plural noun) over the campfire, then we go to our (plural noun) to sleep. We sleep there since the (occupation, plural) closed our cabins because of the (living noun) infestation.

On Saturday we get to go on an overnight adventure. They blindfold us and take us deep into the (adjective) forest. We have to (verb) a(n) (animal), build a (noun) to sleep in, and find our way back using only (noun) and (noun) . The first group went out (number) days ago, but haven't come back yet.

The kids here are great. This morning they (past-tense verb) me to the (noun) . It was especially funny when they threw (plural noun) at me too. They are the (superlative adjective) friends I've ever had!

See you soon (maybe),
Your (son/daughter, name)
